TAKE A LOOK!

Research-informed and tested teaching techniques for reading

WHAT IS IT

A book-based, process-led approach to teaching reading for meaning and depth of understanding. Subscription gives access to fully developed teaching sequences and supporting resources, which are customisable. An interactive planning tool allows colleagues to produce joint planning and save individualised plans using the building blocks from the Take One Book framework.

Take One Book is a four-stage framework for reading based on up-to-date research and tested in schools. Skills for reading, comprehension, fluency and vocabulary are taught through exciting book-based units which offer engaging reading experiences. High-quality dialogic teaching underpins and is key to the process.

Stage 1: Hook and Orientation takes account of what readers need to know to access a text.

Stage 2: First Encounters secures literal understanding and provides opportunities for exploration of texts as children develop their understanding.

Stage 3: Digging Deeper focuses on teaching new skills, unlocking the layers of meaning with text and language study.

Stage 4: Review and Reflect includes revisiting a text, thinking about thematic content and text to world discussions.

Plans also include writing and wider-learning opportunities.

Texts are generally short (novels around 160 pages) and sequences typically provide 2-4 weeks of material.

The website provides all you need to teach the sequences including supporting resources

Devised by Nikki Gamble, co-author of Guiding Reading and author of Exploring Children's Literature, Take One Book is developed with Just Imagine's UK partner schools.

For further support, Just Imagine offers training between 1-5 days covering the rationale reading skills and working with Take One Book.

NEED TO KNOW!

1

This research-informed four-step process leads to deeper reading, with purposes for lessons articulated.

2

Time saving and affordable. Downloadable resources are included with plans and weblinks to supporting material.

The teacher interface shows at a glance the children's current reading, as well as their reading history.

The most popular reads for the class are highlighted, providing information that the teacher can capitalise on in Book Talk sessions.

A teacher-pupil messaging facility makes it possible for teachers to personalise feedback and make recommendations.

The author of the month feature has guest pupil interviewers. Look out for Andy Stanton, Chitra Soundar and Sam Wu creators, Kevin and Katie Tsang.

Plus, a monthly newsletter will provide lots of ideas for making the best use of the multi-faceted app.

Playground Science – Primary Science Teaching Trust

► CHILD-LED ► LOTC
► KS1 ► KS2

Written by PSTT Fellows Tom Holloway and Ruth Shallcross, Playground Science offers purpose and enjoyment to playtime while supporting learning in science.

The resource provides:

- Five drawstring bags: Navy blue, turquoise, pink, orange and apple green – with space to add a bespoke label to the front of the bag: with the topic, class name, etc.

- Five activity cards: with initial ideas and questions on one side, and a follow-up activity on the back, which are designed to encourage children to work more scientifically.

- A teacher guide

Playground Science has two age ranges:

Lower Primary: For younger children (4-7)
Upper Primary: For older children (7-11)

Simple to use, teachers fill the individual bags with an activity card and accompanying equipment, then pass the rucksack to the children who can go outside and start exploring.

Playground Science can be enjoyed by individual children or as a group, and the equipment required can mostly be sourced from within the school; many of the items are commonly used in science or maths.

The CREST Awards by the British Science Association

► SCIENCE ► PROBLEM SOLVING ► INVESTIGATION ► HANDS-ON

TAKE A LOOK!

Boost scientific learning and engagement in your school

WHAT ARE THE CREST AWARDS?

CREST Star and SuperStar Awards are an engaging way to bring science to life in your classroom. By introducing students to real questions from the world around them, CREST allows children to build their confidence and problem-solving skills, using easy-to-run activities that require minimal equipment. There are over 100 challenges for KS1 and KS2 available on the CREST website.

CREST Star and SuperStar Awards offer students the chance to explore the world around them using short, problem-led challenges. Students are given their own passport to complete as they take part in activities – once they have finished eight challenges they are eligible for their award. You can submit your children's passports online and purchase a certificate and iron-on badge for each student.

Each challenge begins with a story that links to broader situations they might encounter. Children explore a question or idea presented through the story. They are supported to think and talk about what the aim for their investigation is and different ways to approach it. Activities require children to develop independent working skills, completing challenges independently of adults – either on their own, in pairs or small groups. They are encouraged to discuss scientific problems and how to record their results. Each challenge gets them to think about and share how to test their ideas, and how to tell people what they did.

Even teachers without a science background are encouraged to consider CREST. The website features a section with teaching resources, activities and helpful tips to keep everything running smoothly. CREST Awards are flexible and cost effective. They can be run in schools, clubs or at home.

With no set timetable, passports can be started whenever you want, and take as long as you need.

NEED TO KNOW!

1

Each challenge takes roughly 45 minutes to an hour to run. Once eight activities are completed, your students are eligible for a certificate and iron-on badge to recognise their achievement

2

Star and SuperStar Awards are a great introduction to problem-solving in STEM. They offer children the opportunity to learn through hands-on challenges by exploring the world around them

3

The 10- or 12-day training (University of East London validated) provides delegates with key insights into the psychology and neuroscience of mental ill-health and challenging behaviour, alongside vital tools and techniques in knowing how to respond to a child. You will also be trained to know when to seek psychologist-led supervision, and when to refer on.

The course not only focuses on work with individual children but also on changing whole-school cultures to be mentally healthy for all. The curriculum covers interventions designed specifically to address teacher stress, teacher absence and poor staff retention. Delegates will also learn to use 'Motional' – an online tool for assessing, improving, and measuring change in emotional health and wellbeing.

Other trauma-informed training for your school and staff includes schools inductions, one-day bespoke training (at your organisation) and senior leads training.

Boost wellbeing with 360° Schools Training from YoungMinds

- ▶ SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT
- ▶ PUPIL OUTCOMES

TAKE A LOOK!

Help protect pupils' mental health and wellbeing

WHAT IS 360° SCHOOLS?

YoungMinds' 360° Schools training focuses on the whole school environment and helps schools find opportunities for every young person to cope with change and adversity, enjoy learning and look after their mental health and wellbeing.

How do you improve outcomes for all young people in your school?

This is where YoungMinds' holistic, asset-focused approach really helps.

Thinking about the positive relationships that are created between staff and students is a great way to start; as well as the school's ethos and culture and how much staff share this vision. If wellbeing is a priority for the whole community, then finding ways to involve senior leaders and governors is vital too.

Schools should include a clear commitment to staff wellbeing. YoungMinds knows how incredibly busy school staff are and how they strive to do the best for their students, so helping schools to value and support their staff is a crucial part of its offer.

Another area it focuses on is how a school identifies the most vulnerable young people and what is in place to meet their needs. These needs may include mental health issues, or Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs). YoungMinds explores which parts of the school system need to adapt to give these young people a chance to reach their potential, and who needs to be involved in this support. Is there a learning support assistant who has really connected with a student who may be struggling? Or is your librarian best placed to advocate on behalf of a young person?

Another area to explore is the role of parents and carers in the school and how YoungMinds can empower them to build partnerships with schools to support their children.

NEED TO KNOW!

1

The organisation's team of highly skilled training staff bring a wide range of lived experience and expertise from the education sector.

2

This means they understand the pressures that schools face and can work alongside staff to support and empower them to make a difference.

YoungMinds training and consultancy provides a tailored approach to recognise your existing good practice, explore some of the gaps and plan how the school can flourish.
